

God, and God Alone

Joshua Hill

Isaiah 45:5-6

Joshua Hill

1. They tried to take His throne. They tried to take His glo - ry by the things that He has made, And
2. They tried to end His plan. They tried to kill the Prince of life, but they could ne - ver change E -
3. They'll chal - lenge Him a - gain, When Christ re - turns as right - ful heir of Da - vid's ro - yal throne, To
4. Then, through a thou - sand years, Our God will reign un - chal - lened, and the at - mos - phere will ring, "All thus, they are en - slaved. Their mas - ter, from his fall, has fought a - gainst the King; But ter - ni - ty's ex - change. His vic - to - ry was sure be - fore He chose His cross. The rule the world He owns. But when He speaks the Word, His e - ne - mies will fall, And praise to Christ our King! Our foe can - not be found, and joy and peace a - bound! Through -

5

8
e - very re - bel soon will bow be - fore His Ma - je - sty! From His throne, the Lord looks down Wea - ring crim - son tree and emp - ty grave an - nounce their ut - ter loss.
all the world in hum - ble fear will hail Him King of all!
out our e - ver - las - ting life we'll sing on High - er Ground:

12
His e - ter - nal crown. He sits u - pon the seat of a - ges, ne - ver to re - sign. Not a crea - ture in all space could pre - vail and take His place. He is God, God of all, and God a - lone!

15